

Key Stage 3

Subject Assessment Criteria: PE Cricket

Level	Assessment Descriptor
	Batting	Bowling	Fielding	Tactics
9	I can consistently select and apply the correct shot during both practice and match situations with some precision, control and fluency. I am able to excellently demonstrate the cut and sweep shot. I can occasionally perform the reverse sweep with accuracy in unpressurised situations.	I am able to confidently demonstrate one method of bowling with high levels of accuracy and fluidity. I am able to perform other methods of bowling with some consistency most of the time, but I do not always consider; line, length, or variation.	I can set a field in relation to a specific batter or bowler with limited success. I am able to throw the ball accurately at the stumps in practice situations, and most of the time in match situations. I am able to catch the ball with both hands most of the time.	I am able to explain and use some of the more advanced rules of the game to inform others or to take an official role. I am able to independently make suggestions about how mine and others' performance could be improved, prioritising aspects for further development.
8
7	I can consistently strike the ball with accuracy and control and direct the ball in the best direction to avoid the fielders. I am able to perform a range of shots on both front and back foot, with good levels of success in both practice and match situations.	I can bowl with variation, pace, and length some of the time. I am able to demonstrate; fast, medium, and spin bowling techniques with limited accuracy.	I can demonstrate and replicate a range of fielding methods with success most of the time. I can use short, long and bounce throws during pressurised match situations with inconsistent success.	I can explain more advanced tactics of games. E.G Positioning of fielders and bowler selection. I am able to alter my style of play to put pressure on my opponents
6
5	I can demonstrate both attacking and defensive shots on front and back foot from the tee and have some success during a pressurised situation. I am able to ;perform; drive, pull, hook, cut, sweep shots in practice drills with high levels of accuracy and consistency.	I am able to include a full run up into my bowling action with some consistency. I can vary line and length of one type of bowl most of the time	I can demonstrate short, long, and bounce throws consistently throughout pressurised situations. I can show good levels of reaction and decision making during a match situation. I am able to field the ball with the correct technique some of the time during a match.	I can identify the difference between mine and others' performance and I can begin to explain how to improve. I am aware of tactical field positions to put pressure on opponents.
4	I consistently strike the ball with control & accuracy during drills from the tee and feeding.	I am able to bowl the ball overarm with some accuracy at a medium pace. I can vary length and line of my bowl but with limited accuracy. Fielding: my strengths as a close/long catcher. Tactics:	I can alter the style of my throw depending on the situation. I can demonstrate the ability to throw short, long, and bounce throws occasionally during a pressurised situation. When catching in a practice situation I making. I am able to	I am able to maintain quality of technique for some skills, however during a match situation sometimes deteriorates. I am able to sometimes make effective and significant contributions but not sustain throughout the position myself on the cricket field to promote can show good levels of reaction and decision	game. I understand the basic rules of cricket.

3	I can play a range of different shot off the front foot with some accuracy.	I can bowl the ball to a batter at a slow to medium pace. I can bowl with a run up, but am inconsistent at hitting the target. I regularly bowl with good length.	I am able to throw the ball over short and long distances most of the time. I can catch the ball from short and long distances with a 50-70% success rate. I demonstrate good short and long barrier fielding positions in practice, but struggle to replicate in pressurised game situations.	During a match I am sometimes able to hit the ball into intended space on the field of play. I am able to compare performances with others and can make suggestions on how to improve. I understand my strengths and weaknesses and position myself in a game appropriately.
2	I am able to hit the ball from the tee in a desired direction. I can complete most of my shots to where I want. I can occasionally react to a different bowl and play the appropriate shot. I can demonstrate different shots in a practice situation, but am unable to regularly repeat in a match. I am able to hold the bat with the correct grip.	I can bowl the ball underarm with consistency. I can sometimes bowl the ball on target from a standing position. I can bowl the ball slower or faster to put pressure on the batter.	I am able to throw the ball, but with little accuracy. I can catch the ball if it is thrown directly at me from a short distance. I attempt to catch the ball from longer distances, but most of the time am not successful.	I can explain the basic rules of 'Quick Cricket', but do not understand the full rules. I am able to observe performance and suggest strengths and weaknesses.
1	I am able to strike the ball from a tee. I can complete some of my shots to the selected direction. I am unable to alter my shot selection based on the ball that is bowled. I am able to strike the ball in practice situations, but I struggle in match situations under pressure.	I can bowl the ball underarm with some consistency. I am unable to alter my technique to put pressure on the batter. I am bowling from a close distance and with limited success.	I am able to throw the ball over a short distance. I can sometimes catch the ball. I am not able to consistently catch the ball during match situations.	I am not yet able to explain the basic rules of the game; however, I understand that I must score more runs to win. I am able to listen to suggestions on how to improve, but find it difficult implicating ideas.